There will be no refund of registration fees.

Whether you want to be on stage or behind the scenes helping to make it happen, this workshop is for you. Students will have the opportunity to develop performance skills through interpretation of the famous Irish tale, Finn McCool and the Salmon of Knowledge. Students will interpret the tale through song, dance and a devised retelling, culminating in a shared presentation of their skills. No experience necessary!

Performance will be at 2:00pm Friday, June 22nd.

Summer Camp FAQs

Important Contact Information

Diane Ahern, Camp Director

Kelsey Kelleher, Theatrical Directors

Where is the camp located?

The Irish Arts Summer Camp will be held at the magnificent Irish Cultural Center, 1106 N. Central Ave, Phoenix, AZ 85004

Do students need to be Irish to attend?

The Irish Arts Summer Camp is open to all children. This is an excellent opportunity to introduce or foster the Irish Culture through the fine arts.

Will students receive an Irish Arts Summer Camp T-shirt?

All students will receive a t-shirt to decorate and wear for the performance. It is important that you indicate on the registration form the size your child will need.

Do you offer pre camp and post camp care for students?

Pre & Post Camp care is available for one hour before camp starts and one hour after camp ends. This service is available for an additional fee. Any camper who arrives before 8:45am or leaves after 3:15pm will be charged the rate for pre and post camp. Please let us know if you will need this service.

Do students bring lunch?

Students will need a sack lunch on Friday. Water will be provided. Make sure all personal items are clearly labeled with your child's name. There are both morning and afternoon break times in addition to the mid-day lunch break. Snacks and drinks will be provided for the morning and afternoon break times.

We are a peanut and nut free facility.

Thank you for observing this policy for the safety of all students attending.

What should my child wear to camp?

The Irish Arts Summer Camp is very active! So make sure that your child is dressed to play and move. Closed toe shoes are a must. No flip flops! Comfortable clothing that allows movement is preferable. Do not have your child wear or bring anything valuable to camp. The Irish Cultural Center is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Will students be outside during the day? All class activities as well as lunches will take place indoors. The teachers may opt to have breaks outside weather permitting. These breaks are short and are always in the shade on the outer baile (courtyard).

What is the Drop-off and Pick-up procedure?

The Irish Cultural Center's parking lot is located directly behind (west of) the Center's buildings. All students need to be signed in and checked out at the end of the day by a parent/guardian or authorized person. ID's will be checked.
