

Workshop, Event or Class Policies
Irish Cultural Center/McClelland Library
Irish Cultural and Learning Foundation (ICLF)

The Irish Cultural and Learning Foundation (ICLF) is the non-profit, tax-exempt parent organization for the Irish Cultural Center (ICC) and McClelland Library. Within this document “Center” refers to the ICC and the McClelland Library joint programming.

Cancellation

All events that do not meet minimum enrollment one week prior to the start date may be cancelled at the Center’s discretion. The Center will contact students in any affected classes or events and offer refunds.

Refunds

A patron who registers for a class, program, or course that is canceled for any reason by the Center, will receive a full refund.

Patrons may withdraw from a class/program/course at any time. In order to receive a full refund, patrons must provide written notice and refund requests at least two business days* prior to the scheduled class/program/course start date. An exception to the two business-days refund policy may be made due to an emergency or an extenuating circumstance. Any decisions about exceptions to policies are at the discretion of Center management.

* a “business day” is defined as Tues.-Sat., our regular open hours

Refunds will not be given to any student who withdraws from a class after the start date.

Please note, any refund request must be made in writing directly to:

academy@azirish.org

Please include your full name and contact information.

Canceling enrollment by phone or to any other azirish.org email address does not automatically refund an account. You must contact us by email at the above account.

Missed Classes

There are no discounts or refunds for any missed classes or for partial attendance. There are no options for partial enrollment of a class or event unless stated on the webpage for certain classes or events.

Accessibility

The ICLF is committed to making programs accessible for all participants. Please contact us two weeks prior to the start of the class or other activity with any accessibility requests or concerns.
