

...he was and with
...as simply and solely, as it
...arent complexion on the proceed
...ing two or three private transaction
...ntually, however, both their eyes met
...elf to the thing he involuntarily determined to help him himself and so he accordingly took hold o
...msized glass recipient which contained the fluid
...also at the same time, however, a considerable
...he place. The debate which ensued was in it
...as lacking in dignity. The debaters were the
...The high hall of Horne's house had never
...hat establishment ever listened to a lang
...foot of the table in his striking Highlar
...to him, was Lynch whose counten
...was the place assigned to Cost
...of the resident indeed
...ports and salt

...yone's remark o
...asons best known to him.
...efore's observations about bo
...he other two were as mutually innoc
...egan to dawn on him that the other w
...fer and made a capacious hole in it by pouring a
...tentiveness in order not to upset any of the her
...progress an epitome of the course of life. N
...ie land, the theme they were engaged on t
...sibly so representative and so varied no
...paedic. A gallant scene in truth it made.
...owing from the briny airs of the Mull
...stigmata of early depravity and pr
...his side was seated in stolid
...it on either flank of it
...with the prim

Celebrate Bloomsday

at the Irish Cultural Center and McClelland Library

Saturday June 10 from 7 to 10PM

Annual Bloomin' Beerfest

A unique Bloomsday celebration commemorating Irish author James Joyce and his groundbreaking novel, Ulysses, with readings from the novel and Irish music.

Wide selection of craft beer tastings, and food available for purchase.

Purchase
Discount Presale
Early Bird Tickets
by June 8
azirish.org

Summer 2017 Public Walk-In Hours
Memorial Day to Labor Day
10AM – 3PM Wednesday & Thursday
(Tours, Library & Genealogy)
3PM – 6PM Wednesday Evenings
(Library and Genealogy only)

Closed August
Scheduled tours by appointment only

Summer Office Hours
10AM – 3PM Tuesday – Friday

Irish
CULTURAL CENTER
McCLELLAND LIBRARY

1106 North Central Avenue
Phoenix, Arizona 85004

602.258.0109

azirish.org

info@azirish.org

The Irish Cultural Center and McClelland Library are divisions of the Irish Cultural & Learning Foundation and are owned and maintained by the City of Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department.

