

Terms and Conditions

- The Irish Cultural and Learning Foundation Summer Youth Program is open to children between the ages of 6 to 12 at the time the relevant Camp takes place.
- The hours of the camps are 9AM to 3PM Monday through Friday. The Irish Cultural Center and McClelland Library shall not be responsible for any child left unsupervised by their parents/guardians outside of these hours unless registered for pre or post camp care.
- The Irish Cultural Center and McClelland Library reserves the right to make date/venue changes and/or cancellations if necessary and will not be held accountable or liable should activities be suspended or cancelled due to adverse weather conditions or events beyond our control (including but not limited to war, strike, riot, crime, plague, hurricane, flood, earthquake and/or pandemic).
- The Irish Cultural and Learning Foundation Summer Youth Program will operate at the highest standard but cannot be held responsible or liable for damages, injuries and/or loss of possessions of any participant. Parents/guardians of each participant are advised to obtain personal insurance to cover any such occurrences. We advise that all valuable items are left at home. We cannot be held liable for any lost or damaged items during any Camp.
- Any misbehavior or deliberate damage of property by a Camp participant will result in such participant being suspended from the Camp. In the event of suspension, no refund will be provided.

Medical Cancellations

- Cancellations due to medical reasons must be notified to the camp coordinator on or prior to the the first day of the chosen Camp.
- Such cancellations must be verified in writing by the participant's doctor within 3 days of notifying the Camp coordinator.
- If such verification is provided within the 3 days, a full refund of the Camp fee will be issued to the affected participant.
- If such verification is not provided within 3 days, only half of the Camp fee for the affected participant will be refunded.

Refunds

- Without prejudice to the above (medical cancellations), no refund will be paid where notice of cancellations is received by us less than 7 days before the first day of the participants chosen Camp (no exceptions)

- For cancellations notified more than 7 days in advance, a refund will be paid, but;
 - A small administrative fee will be charged in order to cover our costs of refunds.
- Where a refund is due, this will be paid back to you within a reasonable amount of time in order to allow us to arrange payment processing.

T-Shirts

- During the Camp application form, parents/guardians will be asked to provide what size t-shirt they wish their child to receive.
- Our aim is to provide each Camp participant with their complementary t-shirt the first day of their chosen camp.
- If after receiving your childs/childrens t-shirt and decide that the size is not correct, you may request a change of size as long as the t-shirt is in good condition (not permanently stained or ripped)
